- 22) NOVEMBER 17TH 1966 Return to Astronomy! During my seminal years I had read about the great 1933 Leonid meteor shower and hope I'd be alive for its 1966 return.
- 23) READING IN THE 11/17/66 BALTIMORE SUN THAT THE LEONIDS WERE TO RETURN THAT NIGHT. AMAZED I WAS STILL ALIVE, I LEANED A CAMERA AGAINST A TREE AND TOOK TIME EXPOSURES IN HOPES OF CATCHING A METEOR. NONE WERE CAPTURED ON FILM, BUT I DID RECORD SOME STAR TRAILS, WHICH REIGNITED MY INTEREST IN ASTRONOMY. I PLUNGED INTO STILL CAMERA ASTROPHOTOGRAPHY.
- 24) URSA MAJOR, A 3-MINUTE TWILIGHT EXPOSURE.
- 25) 3h45m TIME EXPOSURE WITH CAMERA POINTED AT POLARIS. TAKEN ON ADIRONDACKS CAMPING TRIP.
